

COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRY, RESEARCH AND ENERGY (ITRE)

THE CLEAN ENERGY REVOLUTION IN THE EU

The EU has launched a maxi energy plan which proposes rules to redefine electricity market, efficiency in building, renewable energy, consumers' rights. What measures can be taken to provide more reliable guidelines in a sector in which investments are often remarkable and require a stable predictable set of regulations?

Dear delegates of the Committee on Industry, Research and Energy,

Please read through the provided links and prepare accordingly. It is advisable to be further informed through documentaries, articles, reports etc.. In addition, we encourage you to start thinking about solutions to the problem so we can discuss them at the session.

Do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Your CP and Co-CP,
Tsvetina Chelebieva and Alessio Grimaldi
